A MAN KILLED UNDER SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCES--FATAL RESULT OF CURIOSITY.

[Correspondence of Cleveland (O.) Plaindealer.]

MASSILLON, OHIO, July 3.—The particulars of the unfortunate affair which occurred here last night are, briefly stated, as follows: A couple of fellows have, for two or three weeks past, been troubling persons living in the upper part of the city by walking around their houses, looking into windows, and rattling the blinds. At a Mr. Pease's house especially they have been troublesome, having for several evenings past regularly visited it, just as the family were retiring. At first little attention was paid to these visits, but they became so frequent and regular that the matter grew serious, and measures had to be taken to either catch the rascals, or at least drive them off the premises. Last night at 10 o'clock they again made their appearance at a window of the bedroom occupied by Mrs. Church—a widowed sister of Mr. Pease, and Mrs. Ricks, whose husband died a month or two ago. The occupants of the room had not retired, but were sitting with Mr. Pease awaiting the approach of their visitors. Just at 10 o'clock the blinds of an outside shutter were seen to move, when Mr. Pease quickly seized a shot gun, and, intending to frighten the fellow by a random shot, fired. A man fell sideways to the ground, killed instantly by innumerable shot, which pierced his forehead. His companion escaped unknown. The cry for "help," taken in connection with the loud report of the gun, soon brought together a large number of neighbors, and for a time great excitement prevailed. The effect of this chance shot caused Mr. Pease to become almost frantic. He at once surrendered himself to the proper officers, but was immediately released on merely nominal bail. The name of the man so disgracefully killed in the very act of prowling a window through which to look upon resting females, is John Elsher. He was one of the German moulders who worked in Russell's, only twenty four or five years old, and but lately married. The killing him was entirely accidental, though the shooting was not. Considering the annoyance and fright occasioned by the many nightly visits, the affair is by every one looked upon as perfectly justifiable, though certainly lamentable.

From the Alpine (Cal.) Chronicle June 12.

EXCITING SCENE IN COURT—A CONDEMNED PRISONER THREATENS THE LIFE OF THE JUDGE.

Some excitement was created in the county court on Monday last during the sentence of Lawler. The prisoner having no counsel, the court appointed S. W. Griffith, of Darkelsville, to act in that capacity. Griffith wanted one week's time in which to plead, but the court refused to grant more than one day. Griffith and the prisoner then retired to an ante-room for consultation. In due time they returned into Court, when Griffith stated that Lawler had declared his innocence of any intention to commit a larceny, but, owing to the circumstances in the case he had concluded to plead guilty, trusting to the mercy of the court. Judge Eno, after the prisoner had addressed the court in a penitent manner, questioned him regarding his past life, and gave him some good advice, remarking that he would be lenient with him, although his conduct in jail did not warrant it. He was then sentenced to three years imprisonment at hard labor in the State Prison. The sentence had hardly escaped Judge Eno's lips when Lawler "spoke out in meeting" thus: "—— —— your old heart, you ought to sit there until I come out!" The Judge leaned forward and asked the Clerk if he had formally entered the judgment.—Being informed that he had not, Judge Eno said: "Lawler, your conduct shows you to be possessed of a depraved heart, and unworthy of sympathy, and I will add four years to your sentence, and now sentence you to seven years imprisonment at hard in the Penitentiary." The prisoner was furious at this stage of the game, and again belched forth: "—— —— you, you had better be dead when I come out again!" The Sheriff was ordered to remand him. As he passed through the room he cursed the Judge, Sheriff McBain, and everybody else, saying he was young and would get even with them. During the scene above mentioned the spectators were much excited, and would have been glad if Lawler had got fourteen years instead of seven.

A CURIOUS WILL CASE.

[Marshall, Michigan, Correspondence of the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune.]

A case of unusual interest, and in which a large amount of property is involved, is now pending in our courts. In 1860, Jos. Sibley, an old resident of this place and a man of wealth, formed a partnership with Horace J. Perrin, also of this place, in the banking and milling business and general speculation. In September, 1864, Mr. Sibley died, the partnership not having yet expired.—He left but one heir—a son, nineteen years of age—and, as it is not generally understood what the nature of the will was, it may not be amiss to state that he left to his widow, in lieu of dower, the sum of $20,000, in addition to her homestead, and, with the exception of two or three small legacies, bequeathed the whole remaining portion of his estate to Francis M. Sibley, his son. He, however, nominated five executors, who were to have entire charge of the estate. They were directed to pay to this principal legatee the sum of $1,000 per year until he should reach the age of 21, when he was to have $3,000, and $1,000 per year until he should be 25, when, if in the opinion of his executors he would not squander or waste it, he should receive $10,000; then $1,000 per year until 30, when he was to have $15,000 if thought by his executors competent to manage it; and $1,000 per year until 35, when, if in the opinion of his executors, he should be possessed to sufficient discretion to take care of the estate.

Mr. John Hughes has procured from the Russian government the right to work the coal mine in the province of Tekatarinoslay, of which the situation is well known.

Gail Hamilton is surprised that two people have kept in matrimony twenty-five years in Illinois. Has not Gail kept out of it twice as long in Massachusetts?

A large number of plantations along the Opelousas Railroad, in Louisiana, were recently sold to Northern men, several of whom come from Chicago.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE'S OPINION OF THE GRAND ARMY.

The New York Tribune has the courage, Radical though it is, to tell the truth about that tremendous Radical organization, the Grand Army of the Republic, consisting, as it claims, of three or four hundred thousand men. The Tribune says: "We denounce this association as inimical to the Constitution and the Union. The country wants peace, and rest, and harmony, and justice. These men want a distracted country, that offices may be gained." The Tribune might denounce the Grand Army in terms infinitely stronger, and yet be just.

But the leaders of this "army" have the ear and to a great extent the control of President Grant. Either he has large confidence in them or great fear of them.—They have the run of the White House and are allowed the first pick of the offices in all the States for themselves and the members of their organization. Indeed we have been assured that men of the Grand Army fill, to-day, nine tenths of the offices in the country. All the negroes of the South belong to it, and so do all the negroes of the District of Columbia. It is a grand army of treason, and the editor of the New York Imperialist, whose mission is to establish an empire in this country, boasts of it as a most important agency in the accomplishment of the work.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,18.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JULY 10, 1869.

VIRGINIA.

The mother of Presidents, statesmen and heroes, has emerged at last from the gloom and desolation which has enshrouded her for the past three or four years. Thank God, the proud old Dominion has arisen phœnix like from the ashes of her ruins and assumed something like her former beautiful proportions; and will, we trust, launch out into a career of prosperity worthy of her past fame and glory.

Though we of this crushed and oppressed State must groan and labor for some time to come, under our present vile, swindling rotten and villainous administration without a prospect for relief, yet we can join heartily in our sister's exultation in her splendid and decisive victory over the hordes of itinerant vampires of New England. We can forget for the moment our own woes and troubles, and mingle our plaudits with those of the people of free and disenthralled Virginia. Nearly all parts of the State have been heard from and establishes the fact that the Radicals have sustained a regular Waterloo defeat.

From last accounts, it seems that the Conservatives will have have a two-third majority in both branches of the Legislature, and have elected their entire Congressional ticket save two.

In the political firmament of what was once known and spoken of as the "Southern Constellation," Virginia is now the only star whose bright beams have broken through the murky clouds and shines out as a beacon-light to guide her sister States to the haven of success. May the true men and lovers of North Carolina's welfare, resolve, from this day, to take advantage of that light in the next election, and steer the Ship of State into the old channel of honor, prosperity and patriotism. Let us then, fellow citizens, take cheer from the glorious example of thrice glorious old Virginia, and, by the inspiration of hope, draw from the reflected light of her grand victory, hand to hand, shoulder to shoulder, make continued and never-ceasing efforts to free our loved State.

GETTING SCARED.

The Radicals of New Hanover County seem to be getting alarmed at the prospect of a split in the ranks down there, and are trying to frighten the colored voters by telling them if they don't stick to their leaders their liberties are gone. The Post says to them:

"The division of the Republican party is expected and colored men are doomed if such is the case."

Now how ridiculous is all this; with the result of the election in Virginia, just announced, before them, how can they put on the face to make such assertions. The colored people ought to know that the Conservative triumph in Virginia has done more to confirm them in their rights than any other event connected with reconstruction. The Conservative Democratic party of Virginia have actually elected a colored member of Congress, but we'll bet our t'oher shirt the Rads. will not allow him to take his seat. Several negroes have been elected to Congress, but none of them have been admitted yet, and never will be, if the Rads. can prevent it.

The fact is, the carpet-bag and scalawag coalition consider that the negroes belong to them, and, therefore, they assume to control them, body and soul, more rigorously than their old masters did in the days of their slavery. Hence, when the true and reliable men of the country see the negroes attaching themselves to such characters, they are disposed to "let them rip," but when they show a regard for their own real interest, and the true interest of the country, as many of them did in Virginia, they are met in a becoming spirit, and will receive all that justice and humanity can claim for them.

Down! Down!—The telegraph quotes new North Carolina bonds in New York at 44½. What is the matter? Can't Jenkins manage financial matters so as to keep our State credit in better condition abroad?—But we will acquit Jenkins, in part, for this state of things; it is owing to the general corruption in all departments of our State government, which has brought our glorious old State to the condition of begging credit at the pitiful rate shown by these market reports.

Daddy Burns.—A correspondent in Chatham, writing us on business, remarks, incidentally "Old Daddy Burns says, Turner is a little rough, but the swindlers ought to be exposed." Exactly. "Daddy Burns" is as well aware as any man living, that he has been acting with a party of the most barefaced swindlers that ever cursed the State, and yet he continues to act with them. We believe Daddy Burns is an honest man, but he must remember what happened to the good natured spaniel, Tray, who, upon a certain occasion was "most cruelly treated for no other reason than for being found in bad company."

For the Sentinel.

From Louisburg—Another Radical Meeting—Much Speaking and More Confusion—The Party Busted—Two Richmonds in the Field—Exciting Conclusion, &c., &c.

According to appointment, the negroes of Franklin, with their half dozen white allies, assisted by Maj. General Willie D. Jones, of the North Carolina Militia; Farriss, the Capitol Keeper—if reports are true, of other men's goods;—Buckalan, Governor Holden's capital bar-keeper, an admired specimen of the imported teutonic stock; and a few other satellites from Wake, held another Convention for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Senatorship, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Col. R. I. Wynne. James H. Jones, also from Wake, and A. H. Galloway, the Senator from Wilmington, were also here; the latter, it is said, having received $100 to attend the meeting and make a speech in favor of Phil. Hawkins.

The negroes commenced arriving by early dawn, and by 12 o'clock, the town was crowded. Phil. Hawkins, and Madison Hawkins, the two new converts to the glorious Republican party, as Phil. calls it, and the ass-pirants for the nomination, opened a bar each, at which mean and cheap whiskey was dispensed free to their respective friends, and consequently, long before the time for the meeting, the streets were resounding with the shouts and yells of drunken negroes. Phil. Hawkins seemed not to have been satisfied at the glorious prospect ahead, prepared to open another free, Phil. Hawkins' bar upon our main Street, in the centre of the town. The Mayor very properly prevented its being done. This shows the interest felt in the morals and good order of the community, by the new convert to radicalism. He would make all things subservient to his own petty ambition.

The crowd was finally called into the Court House. Col. James T. Harris, of the 49th Regiment N. C. State Militia (what a narrative our est hatch) presided. As Cebe Harris' son Logan didn't come to act as Secretary, Phil. Hawkins moved that Mr. R. T. Edwards be made Secretary, which was done. John Williamson, the irrepressible, arose to a personal explanation,—denied certain rumors about himself,—counseled the party to be harmonious—that it must be so or the Democrats would beat them. Said that he believed but the party in Franklin was the worst busted concern he ever saw, and if they didn't rally, the thing was gone. Said that he did not advocate the claims of either candidate—the people must choose for themselves. Hereupon, Ben Smith,—the most decided ass-pirant for the nomination at first, but bought off, or, as Madison Hawkins says "hired off" by Phil. Hawkins,—asked John if he did not go with Mad Hawkins to call on Gov. Holden to get his influence? John said that he didn't recognize Gov. Holden any more than he did Smith. Smith pressed his question, and John answered that he did call on the Governor with Mad. Hawkins, and asked Smith if he (Smith) did not ask him (John) to go to Raleigh with him (Smith) for the same purpose. Smith caved.

Harry Webb then arose and moved that, if the Committee that should retire, for the purpose of making a nomination, should report a man not suitable to the Convention, the Convention should vote it down, and select another Committee.

Phil. Hawkins dissented and said it was nothing but right that the same Committee should again retire. Phil. then proceeded to speak, saying that Mad. Hawkin's friends had been busily circulating lies about him, that Mr. Jim Wynne, one of Mad's friends, had told him that he (Wynne) had worked his best against him; said that it was reported that he had offered Mad. Hawkins $1,000 to withdraw; that he had done no such thing, had not offered anything whatever to any one to vote for him.

Mad. said, that he heard he would be paid $1,000 to withdraw, but that he told the people he would not sell their rights for for $1,000,000! Mad. then said that Phil. had offered meat, bread and money for votes, and called up Lewis Neal, a colored preacher, to testify to it. Neal said that Phil had told him he would give them meat or bread, or anything he had—would assist any of them whenever he could—but did not ask him to vote for him.

Phil. then commenced speaking, when such cries as the following could be heard above every thing: "Pay me my $11 00 for my Jack fee!" "pay me that $16 00 you owe me and won't pay me!" 'pay me the $4 you owe me!" "Get down from their you d—n rascal, and let an honest man talk!" 'You hired my Jack and wont pay me the fee," &c., &c. Phil. didn't hear any of these demands.

It continued thus for three or four hours, yelling, cursing, hurrahing for Phil., hurrahing for Mad., calling for Jack fees, raising the din, until it was a pandemonium, such as the infernal regions might envy.—Col. Harris, the Chairman, brought down his club, and called the house to order until he was exhausted. When the house was sufficiently worn out to hush up a little, Col. Harris, of the 49th N. C. militia, said that, as he had said before, he would repeat, he was ashamed of the Republicans of Franklin county, that he could shed bitter tears of sorrow over them, he loved them and that it wrung his heart, &c., &c., and so on. The Colonel, or rather the Chairman, finally got sufficient order to get the Committee to retire. During its absence the crowd called upon "the distinguished Senator from Wilmington," as the Chairman called him. Galloway got up and told a few jokes, shamed them for their conduct and disorder, urged them to support the nominee brought in by the Committee. He said that if a man who was prevented from voting for the Constitution that gave the negroes their equal rights, by the 14th article, but gave money to help secure its adoption, he was the man for them to vote for, and, to his knowledge, Gen. Phil. Hawkins subscribed his name to a paper in Raleigh, and paid money for that purpose. Phil. hollered out, "we did do it." That is one development. Lets see if we cannot give another. At the time of the District Convention were at Henderson, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Congress, for this District, to be voted for at the same time the Constitution was voted upon, Phil. Hawkins, and one other person, the only two persons from Franklin who attended the Convention, (and Phil. was not a delegate) entered the Convention as delegates, were put on the Committee to make a nomination, and voted for Capt. Samuel T. Williams, our gallant Congressional standard bearer for that campaign. So while Phil. was secretly paying out his money to secure the Constitution, he was volunteering his services to represent Franklin in a Democratic Convention, and voted for a Democratic nominee, to defeat the Republican nominee. The same thing occurred at Franklinton, at the time Hon. Sion H. Rogers was in nomination. At that time, as before, Phil. was not a delegate; but he voluntarily entered the Convention and gave his influence for the nominees of that Convention, including Col. W. J. Green, for Elector. If a man will play deceit in one thing, or at one time, will he not at another? Galloway also advised them that "whoever the Democrats abused and cursed, to be sure to go for, as they would then secure a good man and a good Republican." Galloway means by Democrats the party who opposed the Constitution and his Republican friends. That party comprises the entire white, and consequently the intelligent, population of the State.—The white people only "cursed and abused" a Radical when they knew him to be villainous, corrupt and dishonest. Galloway says to the negroes vote for the man whom the white people "curse and abuse,"—he is corrupt, and of course can be managed by the ring, (the Penitentiary ring, particularly) and that Phil. Hawkins is the man for them to vote for. This is the logical conclusion of Galloway's advice, and, in this matter we fully concur with him, as to his premises. We think it aptly said.

The Committee came back; the vote stood in the Committee, 18 for Phil., 17 for Mad. It was then made unanimous, by the Committee. Madison objected, inasmuch as the entire Franklin delegation went for him, and the Wake delegation went for Phil. He claimed that Franklin had the right to choose, and Wake should ratify the choice. The Convention voted—the Chairman said the ayes had it for Phil.—the Convention said they did not and called for the question again—the Chairman refused to give it, and then, Hail Columbia! It commenced sure enough. The former fuss was nothing. An old freedman declared to us, that the only thing he ever knew to equal this thing was "h—ll breaking loose in Georgia."—We were satisfied with the comparison, from what we had heard of that memorable catastrophe. So, as the negroes could not get the Chairman to notice them, they took their man Madison, and went out on the Court Square. He and one Sears, addressed them. Maj. General Jones, called upon them to stay and hear him about schools, but no go, or rather both had to go, for the crowd would'nt listen to the Major General; a few remained in the Court House and one Bob. Neal undertook to address them against Phil., one of Phil's friends commenced questioning Bob, when he replied, that "if you will come and pay me the $16 50, Phil. Hawkins owes me, I won't say another word. He owes it to me honestly for labor done, and refuses to pay me. A man who ain't got principle enough to pay an old hard working nigger what he owes him, aint no more fit for the power of Congress, or any other power than h—ll is for a ham."

Thus ended the meeting. But further and worse scenes awaited us. Farris attacked Capt. Jos. J. Davis, which was resented by one of the Captain's friends, who was near. Farriss drew his pistol, but it was taken from him, and finding that a fuss might take place, and being most peaceably disposed, retired in most rapid good order. His zeal in thus trying to prevent a difficulty, was most commendable. At all events, he was determined not to be a witness, as he very soon joined one of the private rooms of Dent's Hotel. Galloway, headed by negroes, they then threatened to disarm several of our citizens which were known to have arms, and which they prepared for use as soon as the difficulty commenced. This part of the row was soon quieted, but Colonel James T. Harris, of the 49th Regiment, called upon the negroes to form a line, and he would march down and take every one of them if they did not give up their arms to Ans. He was Colonel of the 49th Regiment, and he had authority to arrest Sheriff, Mayor, and every one, and would do it. The poor fool didn't know the difference between an organized militia and a drunken mob. Had it not have been for him the row would have been quieted without any difficulty. He does not know that he can only call his militia out, when ordered by the Governor, or called upon by the Sheriff, or Magistrates, neither of which was done. He threatened to take his drunken mob, and arrest, not only the citizens whom we knew were armed, but the town and County officers, and take the whole to Raleigh. He wandered down street at the head of his line, for the purpose aforesaid, and but for several of our citizens, who stopped him, Col. Harris, with many of his mob, would now be quietly resting in some cemetery. A sufficient number of our citizens were ready, and prepared to handle the mob to their utter discomfort, had it not have been stopped. Our citizens were not aggressive, but were determined not to be mobbed by Col. James T. Harris and his drunken negroes. James H. Jones and Backalan exerted themselves to quell the disturbance. One Ed. Parish, a late citizen of that delectable locality, Gray Alley, in your City, but now one of Capt. I. J. Young's Collectors, instead of attending to his duties, loafed about the Court House most of the day, and was as loud mouthed as any in urging Col. Jim Harris to take his regiment and arrest the whole concern. When James Harris was wanted by the Sheriff to attend the investigation, he urged him not to go, but to resist the Sheriff, and if he said anything, arrest him; order was finally restored; the crowd left town. But for superhuman efforts on the part of some of our citizens, a most serious difficulty would have taken place. Our town is now quiet, and as John Williamson says, "the party is the worst busted concern" we ever saw.

Two Editors Shot by a Policeman—One Mortally and the Other Seriously Wounded.—Terre Haute, Ind., July 6.—This afternoon about 2 o'clock C. W. Brown and Major O. S. Smith, editors and proprietors of the Saturday Evening Gazette, were shot by Erwin Scrnia, a policeman.

Major Smith was returning from his dinner to his office, and as he passed the corner of Third and Main streets Scrnia assaulted him a billy. Stunned and bewildered by the blow, Smith ran in the middle of the street, Scrnia following him, and overtaking him dealt him several more blows before he reached the opposite side of the street. By this time Smith succeeded in drawing his pistol, and attempted to shoot, but the pistol missed fire. Scrnia then jumped behind a lamp-post, and, drawing a large navy revolver, fired at Smith, who fired at the same time. Scrnia's shot took effect in Smith's leg. He then started across the street, and met Mr Brown, who had by that time reached the ground, and, again drawing his revolver, fired at Mr Brown, the shot taking effect in his breast, producing, it is feared, a mortal wound. The affair caused the most intense excitement in the city.

General Sheridan is being put in training for the Radical candidate for President in 1872, as the successor of Grant. This is the secret of the move to make him President of the Society of the Army of the Potomac and the cause of the preliminary caucus to force his election to that position. They desired that position as a stepping-stone and as a means to secure the assistance of that society in carrying out their programme for 1872. The scheme is said to be extensively laid, and has the support of Grant, who expects at the end of his term to be rich enough, through presents and profits in the sale of offices, to retire to private life.—N. Y. Herald.

GRANT'S OWN TESTIMONY.

About three years before General Grant got to be President Grant, he made a tour of survey throughout the South, with instructions to look at matters as he might find them, and to report accordingly to the Government at Washington. Confidence was entertained by the officers of the civil Government that he would speak impartially, exposing, if necessary, the falsehoods of the partizan agents and emissaries sent to the South, or employed there to incite or to fabricate outrages for political purposes, and he seemed, in the execution of his work, to prove himself worthy of the trust reposed in him. Having finished his tour, he reported, that, although there were irregularities and misdeeds in the South, there was a general disposition throughout all that section to yield obedience to legitimate authority and to secure peace and harmony. Senator Sumner, in his place, spoke of General Grant's report as "a white-washing affair," and General Butler denounced it as not fit to be relied on. President Grant knows whether General Grant told the truth in his report or not. It is obvious, however, that he is now giving his confidence to the representations of just such unprincipled emissaries as he himself, by personal observation and scrutiny three years ago, discovered to be guilty of falsehood and calumny. The Southern agents of Radicalism are lying even more against the Southern people now than they were then. And yet Grant is evidently very much under their influence, believing them the more implicitly the more they falsify, and showing them that to utter slander against the Southern Democracy is the surest mode of winning his official favor. Any man in the South, who should now make such a report as Grant himself made in 1866, would forfeit his favor.—Louisville Courier Journal.

PISTOLS AND COFFEE—STOKES PROFFERS SENTER A PICKWICKIAN CHALLENGE.

During Governor Senter's closing remarks at Clinton, yesterday, he was "a circumstance" more severe and scathing in his denunciation of Stokes than in any previous speech. The "General's" military record was used pretty much in the way toys use a bladder, which is puffed out and swelled by the wind it confines within itself. Gov. Senter used it as a foot-ball, threw it around among the bystanders, and finally took it between his hands, and, bringing them sharply together, burst it.

When the "bald-eagle" rose to reply, he fairly trembled with anger and shame. Raising his long finger and pointing it towards Gov. Senter, he said:

"Fellow citizens! I have a wife and children from whom I should greatly dislike to part from. Yet I tell Governor Senter I will hold him personally responsible, after the election, for what he has said to day. If he considers himself a gentleman, I challenge him to meet me after the election, as a gentleman, and we will then see who is the coward and who the man. I denounce Senter as a liar, and I am ready to meet him any time after the election."

Governor Senter, who was sitting immediately in the rear of Stokes, coolly arose and informed Stokes that he was ready to meet him now, or any time agreeable to him (Stokes) previous to the election, but would prefer to settle the difficulty without delay. He, therefore, invited Stokes to step out on the field in the rear of the stand and obtain satisfaction.

Stokes replied that he would settle the affair after the election.

Both speakers then intimated that the discussion was closed for the day. Senter slapped Stokes on the shoulder and remarked quietly that he preferred to give him satisfaction without delay.

Stokes then replied that he did not mean anything serious, but desired Senter to understand his desire for a fight as expressed in a Pickwickian sense.

The affair would doubtless have resulted seriously if Stokes had not been destitute of courage.

The Empress Eugenie to Visit the United States.—Appleton's Journal for July 1st announces a doubtful story that Eugenie, Empress of the French, will visit America next summer. It says the fact has not been before made public, though how it obtained the information is not stated.—We quote:

It is pretty generally known that Prince Arthur, second son of the Queen of England, will visit Canada and the United States during the present season, but the fact that we are about to announce has not yet been made public—that a more illustrious person will land on our shores next summer in the person of Eugenie Montijo, grand-daughter of old Mr. Kilpatrick, at one time American consul at Malaga, and a friend of Washington Irving, who in one of his letters says: "Louis Napoleon and Eugenie Montijo, Emperor and Empress of France—one of whom I entertained at my cottage on the Hudson; the other, when a child, I had on my knee at Grenada! It seems to cap the climax of the strange dramas of which Paris has been the theatre during my lifetime. * * * The last I saw of Eugenie Montijo she was one of the reigning belles of Madrid." Eugenie will not visit the United States as Empress of France, but will travel incog. under an assumed title, which, however, will not prevent her receiving a most cordial and enthusiastic reception wherever she may show her still beautiful face. She will be the first of the crowned heads of Europe who has landed on American soil.

The New York Radical Press on the Virginia Election.—The New York Tribune, referring to the returns of the Virginia election, remarks:

"We heartily rejoice at the substantial consummation of the work of reconstruction in Virginia. The new constitution was on Tuesday adopted, without its disfranchising and other clauses, by an overwhelming majority. Our readers are not unprepared to hear that the Walker, or, as it prefers to style itself, the conservative republican party, triumphed in the election of the State ticket. The figures claimed for their majority by the Walker men are doubtless too large, but it seems clear their triumph is decided."

The New York Times says:

"We are pleased to hear that the negroes of Richmond who desired to vote the Walker ticket were permitted to do so by their colored fellow-citizens. It would be a bad sign for the Southern freedmen if they were all to be forced to vote one way, as was the case in the late election at Washington."

The National Intelligencer.—A card published in the Washington Express last evening, signed by Henry Ward, proprietor of the Express, says: "The discontinuance of the publication of the National Intelligencer is not final, but that its resumption by the lawful owners will take place as soon as arrangements to that end can be perfected. It has never been the intention, he says, to abandon the title, but delay has been rendered necessary by reason of certain complications under previous management, and a strike among the employees. He also gives notice that the right to enjoin others from the use of the title and name of said paper is reserved."

STATE NEWS.

Among the young gentleman of our State who gained distinction at the University of Virginia we notice the names of R. H. Lewis and Jacob Battle, of Edgecombe, W. W. Miller, of Duplin, and G. M. Smedes, of Raleigh.

The city railway officials have gained the consent of the Board of Aldermen to erect a wooden shed for the protection of their cars in the centre of Market street, just above Ninth.

The first and second class cars will be run together the whole time, making trips every half hour.—Wil. Journal.

Catfish Eggs.—The Wilmington Journal say, a number of catfish eggs, perfect curiosities in their way, were yesterday exhibited to the gaze of the curious by a party of young men who had obtained about sixty from a fish caught in our river. The egg is round, somewhat transparent and contains the young fish and that upon which he lives. The young one can be distinctly seen through the thin skin of the egg in all his perfect proportions, and when placed in water gives signs of life.

Candidates Enough.—There are five candidates for Eden's old mantle, in New Hanover county, Rutherford, Martin (white) and Martin (black) Larkins and Eagles (black). All the hollows are full, and several rabbits are yet unhoused, hence, whenever a hollow is vacated, many rush to poke their heads in the vacant hole.

Ripe watermelons have made their appearance on our streets. The price asked for them at present is beyond our finances.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

"Long Grabs" has got back to Fayetteville, and taken a short grab at the locum tenens of the Eagle for his views on the Cuban question.

A Determined Jury.—In all the complicated proceedings of the Special Court in the case of George Cotton, (colored,) for an affray, the jury remained firm. After rendering a verdict of not guilty and being sent back by the Court with orders to reconsider and render a verdict of guilty, they still persisted in their original decision, and would render but the one verdict. They were then discharged.

The counsel for the defendant upon this second verdict of the jury declaring him innocent, moved for his discharge, but the motion was not allowed. The Court then required that the defendant enter into a bond of $25 for his good behavior for three months, and for his personal appearance at the next term of the Court. Will he then be tried again? Will the effort be made with a new jury and at a new term after one jury has twice declared him innocent?—Wilmington Journal.

Singular Mistake.—Victor Hugo has a passion for saying nice and uncommon things to every one, and some of his responses to casual correspondents are better than enigmas. The other day he made a rather unpleasant mistake. A bricklayer of Blomlax, who was tormented by the foul fiend poesy, addressed a poetical epistle to Victor Hugo, who replied to it as follows: "I distinctly see your image in your verses—your very idea came out of a head surrounded by a wealth of blonde ringlets. O, my child, may you retain for a long time these blonde ringlets which the scissors of age have not yet touched." The poetical bricklayer, a man of sixty-five years of age, looked decidedly perplexed upon reading these singular lines.

John W. Gant, says that he can't and won't pay the bills of Geneva Fowler, a sort of a wife of his.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—We are requested to announce that the Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, will preach in the Catholic Church, in this city on the 11th inst., at half past 10 o'clock, A. M.

The citizens are respectfully invited to attend.

Tickett No. 1200, owned by J. F. Harrison, drew the piano at the R. & P. Estate Agency Drawing to-day.

THE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—At the meeting of the Board of Directors last night, the securities proffered by those to whom loans were made at the last meeting, were accepted.

We learn from the Secretary that 1157 shares have been subscribed and the premium is now 75 cents for three months, or 25 per cent per month.

WATERMELONS.—We saw some on our streets to-day, but they were a long way off—clean out of our reach.

SPECTACULAR.—On yesterday afternoon there could be seen, driving up and down Fayetteville Street with gay and gaudy equipages, several of the loyal. In one of the vehicles, we saw Prince Joe W. Holden; Martindale, carpet bag member of our Senate, the gay, festive and convivial Theo. Joseph, and the "Hon." James H. Harris (negro) leaning back luxuriously, chatting easily and seemingly on terms most familiar. We hope this public mention of the great friendship and close social intimacy existing between all of these gentlemen, will not be considered as an "invasion of the social circle" and thereby arouse their terrible wrath and indignation.

PERSONAL.—We had the honor of a call, this morning, from Judge M. E. Manly, of Craven. This gentleman is on his way to Hillsboro', where he usually spends the summer months. He was looking well, and we were happy to learn that his general health has been good for some time past.

WAKE JAIL.—There are 30 prisoners confined in Wake county jail at present—8 white and 22 colored. Of this number ten are under sentence to the Penitentiary for terms varying from ten to twenty years; the others awaiting trial, mostly on charges of larceny. One tall representative of midnight was incarcerated to-day because he has failed to provide food and raiment for his better half.

The third Small Drawing of the N. C. Real and Personal Agency took place at Tucker Hall this evening. The Velocipede, extra, containing a list of the Prizes drawn, was on the streets in less than half an hour after the close of the drawing. This is what we call enterprise. We feel it due to say that it was printed in that short time, at the well known Job Office of Nicho's & Gorman. What office can beat that? This beats New York.

RESOURCES OF NORTH CAROLINA.—Our Greensboro' cotemporary, the Register, as Topic, under the head of "Resources of North Carolina," quotes from the Directory of the North Carolina Land Company, without giving any credit, or even saying "by your leave." Now, friend Register, the North Carolina Land Company is a valuable North Carolina institution, that you and every other press in the State ought to assist in bringing into the State purchasers of our waste lands, and capital to uncover our hidden mineral wealth; and the copying selections from its Directory was such a good opportunity of making favorable allusion to it, that we are surprised you failed to do so.

The Jackson, (Miss.) Clarion is using paper manufactured from the common okra stalk that flourishes in that latitude. A Georgia paper says: "The plant grows very finely with little cultivation, and is destined to become one of the staple products as soon as our people get to cultivating a variety of crops on the small farm system."

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.—We learn from the Washington papers that the Commencement exercises of this Institution, took place on the 28th, 29th and 30th of June and were highly interesting. On Monday night the Annual Exhibition of the Preparatory Department took place in E Street Baptist Church.

On Tuesday night the contest in Elocution and Composition for the Davis Prize Medal took place in the Front Baptist Church on 13th Street. There were eleven contestants and the first prize was awarded to Mr. A. [illegible] Stuart, D. C., and the second prize to Mr. F. R. Boston, of Maryland.

On Wednesday, at 11 o'clock, A. M., the regular exercises of the Graduating Class took place. There were eleven graduates, six receiving the degree of "Bachelor of Philosophy" and five the degree of "Bachelor of Arts."

Under the able Presidency of Rev. G. W. Samson, D. D., this College is now in a more prosperous condition than at any previous period in its history. The following is the summary of students in attendance during the past year:

Academic students	174
Law students	178
Medical students	60
Theological students	19
Total	426

On Tuesday afternoon the Alumni Association met. At 4 o'clock the Annual Dinner of the Alumni took place. Among those present who responded to sentiments at the dinner, we noticed the names of Rev. W. M. Young, D. D., formerly of Wilmington and now of Pittsburg, Pa., also Colonel John H. Wheeler, of Washington, D. C., and W. J. Palmer, of this city. The next term will begin on Wednesday, the 22d of September.

PERSONAL.—We learn that the Hon. E. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Company's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co-operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, General Agent.

PUBLIC MEETING IN JONES.

A call for a public meeting of the citizens of Jones county to take place in Trenton on Saturday the 31 day of July, 1869, having been made, in response to said call a considerable number of the citizens of said county, of all parties, assembled at the Court House in Trenton on the day named.

On motion of S. E. Koonce, Thomas J. Whitaker, was called to the Chair.

The Chairman, in a few brief and appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting.

On motion, B. Askew was requested to act as Secretary.

J. B. Stanly moved that the Chairman appoint a Committee of seven to prepare and report resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. Carried.

The Chairman then announced the following named persons to compose said Committee, viz: Jas. B. Stanly, Sheriff John Pearce, Jas. Osgood, Cyrus Brown, Nathan McDaniel, James C. Moore and James K. Smith.

The Committee retired, and, after an absence of nearly an hour, returned and reported the following resolutions on the part of the majority of said committee. Mr. Osgood, one of the Committee, gave notice that he had prepared a minority report, which he should present at the proper time, as a substitute for the majority report. The majority report was then read, as follows:

WHEREAS, There has been murder and other crimes committed in our County, and we, the people of Jones, have been charged with their commission to our manifest detriment, both financially and against the fair fame of our citizens. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the people of Jones, deny any complicity in the murders committed, or kindly feeling with the murderers, and do denounce the burning of houses that followed.

2nd, That as the people of Jones have never resisted the law, we see no necessity for an armed police force in our midst.

3rd. That we tender our unqualified obedience to all the laws of our land and to all the necessary officers for their execution.

4th. That we will always willingly assist the officers of the law in the execution of their duty.

5th. That understanding we have been charged with having in our midst an organized band of murderers and horse thieves, we take the present opportunity of denying that we have, or ever have had any such band here, or have ever given shelter or countenance to them, knowing them to be such.

6th. That should there be any such amongst us, we hereby most emphatically denounce them and do assert that we will do our utmost to apprehend them and bring them to justice.

After the reading of the foregoing resolutions, Mr. Osgood presented the minority report, and moved that it be substituted for the majority report. Here a short debate ensued in which Messrs. Osgood, Pearce, S. H. Isler, C. H. Koonce and D. J. Green participated.

On motion the majority report was again read section by section, and each resolution voted on separately and adopted after a slight amendment to the first resolution, with few dissenting voices.

Mr. Osgood asked leave to withdraw the minority report. Granted.

On motion it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and forwarded to the Journal of Commerce, and Newbern Daily Times for publication, and that the Standard and Sentinel, of Raleigh, be requested to copy, and any and all papers in the State will confer a favor by publishing the same.

On motion the meeting now adjourned.

THOMAS J. WHITAKER, Com'n.
BENJ. ASKEW, Sec.

EMIGRATION.—The cry is, "still they come." Emigrants are pouring in by several thousands a week, and the number is weekly increasing. For the week ending Tuesday, inclusive, the number arriving at Castle Garden, New York, was 5,784. The current expenses of that institution for the week were $9,028, and it has a balance of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars in bank.

GENERAL NEWS.

Nearly one-half the type setting on the Paris literary papers is done by women.

About four hundred American families are sojourning at Dresden.

Jacob Cram, Esq., a prominent citizen of New York, died on Wednesday, aged 87 years.

Therese, the can-can dancer at Paris, is said to be worth 200,000 francs.

There are seventeen different newspapers and periodicals edited and published in Nashville.

Three tons of solid silver bricks from Colorado, sealed in leather sacks, reached Chicago one day last week.

Miss Florence Rice, a Brooklyn contralto, is studying on the continent, with bright prospects of success.

A loyal Prussian at Colberg nearly put out the crown Prince's eye with a bequet while he threw him.

Mr. Crawford, keeper of a store in Loe, New Hampshire, quarreled with his son the other day, and struck him with an axe. The son then seized a gun and shot his father dead.

The Boston Transcript of July 3 says:—The Daniel Webster farm and homestead in Franklin, N. H., were sold to Mr. Hartwell, of Providence, R. I., yesterday, for $15,000. The sale was made by Mr. George W. Nesmith, administrator of Mr. Tay, who purchased the estate of the Webster family.

It was so cold on Monday night that as the trains on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were crossing the mountains it was found necessary to make fires in the cars.—The passengers suffered severely from the cold. The temperature was that of a November morning, so one of the passengers assured us.

Seven horse thieves have within two years been shot or hung in Jersey county, Ill., without judge or jury.

The deaf mutes of London have established a debating society, named in honor of Dr. Wallis, who in the reign of Charles II. invented the system of signs at present employed by the deaf.

John T. Alexander's 40 000 acre farm in Douglas, Champaign and Ford counties, Ill., includes 5,000 acres in corn, three feet high, and 3,000 acres in wheat, harvesting twenty-five bushels to the acre.

One thousand years before the birth of Christopher Columbus, the Chinese Year Books says that a company of Buddhist priests entered America by way of Alaska, and examined the whole western cost of North America.

A New York paper says there are probably not fewer than one hundred colored men now in Rome preparing for the Roman Catholic priesthood. The majority of them will become teachers of the freedmen of the South.

Near Knoxville, Tenn., have been found the fossil remains of the head of a sea turtle, so large that it is estimated that the reptile when alive, must have weighed several tons.

Richard Fletcher, of Boston, whose death was recently announced, has left a residuary legacy to Dartmouth College, his Alma Mater, of three hundred thousand dollars. It is to be invested as a permanent fund, and the income used at the discretion of the trustees.

A young girl is reported missing in New York. Her name is Alzein Putrin, only seventeen, and very beautiful. She left Montreal for New York on the 15th of June, and has not since been heard of.

A grindstone five and a half feet in diameter, at a file manufactory, in Columbus, Ohio, burst on Wednesday morning, while a workman, named Beaumeister, was engaged in grinding file blanks. A large fragment of the of the stone struck him in the left breast, killing him instantly.

Gen. Ames, commanding in Mississippi, it is said, intends that the whites and blacks at the approaching election shall vote at separate polls—to be two miles apart at each precinct, if necessary to maintain peace.

In 1865, Adjutant General Townsend deposited in the Treasury a gold bar, worth $1,189 captured at the Dahlonega Branch Mint, Georgia, with the Confederate government stamp on it. Treasurer Spinner will now send this bar to the Philadelphia Mint, to be coined.

James Stapp, the son of the United States tax collector, General Milton Stapp, was murdered on June 11 at Goliad, Texas. His body was found on Sunday, perforated by eleven bullets. No clue to the murderers.

The new Secretary of the Navy is understood to have been recommended to the President not only by the gift of five hundred dollars towards Mr. Grant's house in Philadelphia, but also by his jovial temper. It is not surprising, therefore, to learn that one of his first official acts has been to telegraph to Admiral Hoff to send home the steamer Tallapoosa, as he wants it for a "pleasure party" of high officials. This will be good news to the officers of the Tallapoosa, who must find it quite a bore to be poking about the Cuban coast to protect Yankee skippers from Spanish over hauling. Decidedly Robeson is "jolly."—And as for the expense? Well, that is not Robeson's affair, you know!—N. Y. World

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred on the Morris and Essex road, at New Providence, on Tuesday evening, which resulted in the killing of two and the serious injury of a third person, formerly residents of this city. Mr. Smith, his two daughters, and a lady friend named Mahoney, walking along the railroad track of the Morris and Essex railroad towards the depot at that place, stepped from one track, in order to avoid a train which they observed approaching, to the other track, placing themselves immediately before another train, of the approach of which they were ignorant. Mr. Smith and one of his daughters were run over and immediately killed, and Mrs. Mahoney seriously if not fatally injured, by this second train. The second daughter of Mr. Smith escaped uninjured.—N. Y. Tribune.

RELIEF FOR EX CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.—A large meeting of ex-Confederate soldiers was held in Memphis, Tenn., last week, and a "Confederate Relief and Historical Association" was formed, with ex-Governor Harris, of Tennessee, as President, and General Patton Anderson as Vice-President. The main objects of the association are the relief of the destitute soldiers, their widows and orphans, and the collection of records pertaining to the late war."

A DECORATION FROM ON HIGH.—It is said that after the Grand Army of the Republic had left Arlington Cemetery, on decoration day, there came on a great storm of wind and rain. The next day all was bright and fair, but a wondrous change had been wrought. The wind, more charitable than man, and more particularly indignant, had whirled the flowers off the graves of the Federal soldiers and heaped them upon the neglected and insulted graves of the thirty unknown Confederates.—[Ex.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Revenue to-day six hundred and ninety-thousand dollars.

Gen Banks has gone to Europe.

Gov Flanders, of Louisiana, is at Willard's.

The British legation is at Newport.

Patent Commissioner Fisher has returned.

Silas D. Wood, Collector 4th Texas Revenue District qualified to-day.

Minister Motley has neither made nor received propositions regarding the Alabama claims.

Woodruff and Jenks, of Mississippi, visited the President to-day. They have assurances of utter disregard in the approaching contest so far as the administration is concerned, and have assurances that the commanding General will be restrained from any show of partiality. A free, unbiased contest between the people, provided violence and ruffianism be avoided, is all the administration requires. It will only interfere in behalf of peace.

Gen. John Cochrane will accept the revenue collectorship of the 6th New York District, if any National Bank will keep open for him. Secretary Boutwell is arranging to have Cochrane's deposits received to the close of his business hours.

The Cuban partisans here have the following: Advices have been received in this city from Nuevitas and Puerto Principe to the 27th ult., and from Puerto Del Padre and Las Tunas to the 30th. There has been no movement of a decided character in either district. The Spaniards have been re-inforced at Nuevitas, and are thus enabled to retain possession of the Railroad from that city to Puerto Principe and give succor to the garrison at the latter city, which is threatened by the Cubans under Gen. Quesada. In the Puerto Del Padre District there has been several skirmishes. The health of the Cuban army is reported to be very good, and that it is increasing in numbers and effectiveness. There is great anxiety to know the views of the United States Government, and the position it will occupy in the contest.

The election in Mississippi will probably not occur until the 4th Tuesday in November. This will throw this election after those of Pennsylvania and Ohio. Nothing definite has transpired regarding the Texas election, but it is thought it will be equally remote.

The Cabinet session to-day, lasted until three o'clock. The discussion was spirited. Bontwell's policy favoring extreme measures regarding the partial retention of disfranchisement and delay until after important Northern elections, prevailed. The friends of Hamilton, in Texas, are indignant at the proposed delay which will keep those States out of the Union until late in the year.

The Navy Department has advices that Luperon, with his gunboat "Telegrafo," is molesting American vessels in the Carribean sea.

Grant thinks Mississippi and Texas will follow Virginia's lead.

The health of Rawlins, Secretary of War, is not feebie.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Godwin's tobacco factory, in Brooklyn, was seized by revenue officers today.

No warrants have been issued against brokers or money lenders, but the grand jury will take evidence. A large number of well-known brokers have been summoned.

The small pox is materially diminished in the city.

BRENT.

The Great Eastern is 1734 knots out. Her officers expected to reach soundings to-day.

FROM VIRGINIA.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of Insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-scrofulous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and all forms in which the blood is seriously aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Whether it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals, in the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is entirely hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the

MABEL.

There's not a ripple on the silver lake,
There's not a cloud in yonder summer sky,
The delicate lily hangs its trembling flake
Of snow, above the water, dreamingly.

All sounds are hushed,—all nature seems a calm,
In which the wearied spirit might repose
In sweet surcease, drinking the perfumed balm
Of hidden violet and dainty rose.

On swaying boughs the happy red birds swing
Preening with careless ease their plumage rare,
Twittering a little, as if they would sing
Were not the song an effort and a care

Calm as this lake or blue sky o'er us bent
Happier than birds, as free from care as they,
He neath the currents of our being blent,
MABEL and I on this soft summer day.

We wandered here this morning listlessly,
Without a purpose unless it be this,
To be together, for the hours speed by,
When near each other, laden with such bliss

My boat lay fastened to a beechen stump;
We entered, glad to while away the hours
Hearing the oars soft plash, the lit lows thump,
Watching the sportive fish, the floating flowers,

My hands with willing toil the lithe oars pulled;
She, leaning o'er the side her bare arm laved,
(Fair as the lilies which anon she culled)
Gazed on the face that had my heart enslaved

'Twas near that clump of willow trees, I turned;
My eyes, my face, my manner all revealed
The flame of feeling that within me burned,
While in devoir my loyal spirit kneeled

My eyes grew strangely dim,—my heart beat fast,
My arms seemed weak,—the oars unsteady grew,—
With quivering voice, I faltered out at last,
"MABEL, my love, you know I love but you"

And then, my tongue unsealed I told her all,
All that for years and years had filled my soul,
Begging that from her lips some word might fall,
Accepting, as I gave, my heart's control.

She trembled, as I spake, like startled fawn,
The hot flood flushed her face, and fled the while,
Leaving her calm and pure as summer dawn;
Then placed her hand in mine with sweetest smiles

She said,—with eyes like heaven's untroubled blue,—
With hand imprisoned, fluttering like a bird;—
Oh! who could doubt her heart was leal and true!
Oh! who could doubt such pledged unspoken word!

Oh woman's heart! so sweet—so strange—so brave—
Commanding homage, yet surrendering all!
Love's rightful Queen, and yet Love's humblest slave,
Strong in thy freedom,—strongest in thy thrall!

I know not what else passed. I only know
Her heart beats ever warm and true for me;
White deeper violets in her soft eyes glow,
And richer roses on each cheek I see.

We linger still linked to the glittering beach,
With this sweet thought, that this is the sweet place,
That taught us first how dear each is to each,
And crowned familiar scenes with nameless grace.

ROGER GRAHAME.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THE PROTESTING LAWYERS "EXCUSED." The difficulty between the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Bar, has been tided over by the Judges excusing, not acquitting, the protesting lawyers. The opinion of Chief Justice Pearson in the case, though cunningly devised, and still more cunningly worded, is logically lame and impotent, its sophistry sticking out all over like the pustules on the face of a small-pox patient. However satisfactory it may be to the Judges themselves, and especially to Judge Reade who finds in it a splendid companion-piece to his Hyman letter, it will hardly convince the people that the protestants were in the wrong. On the contrary, indignation is everywhere expressed, in the State and out of it, that the Judges of the Supreme Bench of North Carolina should have meanly taken advantage of their position and power, to punish men for expressing their honest opinions upon a subject of great public moment, and thus exercising an inalienable right possessed by the citizens of every government which claims to be free. The trouble is now over, we presume, but the Judges have emerged from it with their robes as sadly bedraggled as they were during the late campaign in which their wearers bore so unenviable and unprecedented a part. It is the first time in the history of our State that such a thing as this difficulty was ever witnessed, and it is a bad augury for our future. The Philadelphia Age, a Northern paper, alluding to this very matter, never uttered a truer thing than when it said: "Radicalism has inflicted many stabs upon the welfare of these nation, but none more deadly than when it turned rancorous partisans into judges, and the Bench into a rostrum from which small politicians can dignify their narrow prejudices with the name of judicial decisions.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed supervisors of the above Company, do certify that we neither own any stock or tickets, nor can we, and we will here state that the drawing will be conducted fairly for all who hold tickets, whether present or not at the drawing. We will publish a full list of all numbers drawing prizes, which will be sent to any one desiring it.

Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate of a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or forms they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents coal already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

For further description and particulars, address
JOHN SKINNER,
SECRETARY.
